	Comments on main points from audit
Global-Mark summary of the main findings	The organisation Positive comments are as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Exceptional good process for ecosystem services placing the forest manager in an ideal position to add this to their scope of certification.</li> <li>2. Responsiveness to stakeholder concerns - Brian explained liaison call from with neighbour whose child had asthma for burn Old Kersbrook.</li> <li>3. Professionalism of workforce in both commercial and community services teams. Rangers were actively involved with site development, signifying a strong connection with the areas.</li> <li>4. Opportunistic deployment of residual/excess pine seedlings to fallow areas set aside for next year.</li> <li>5. The website is used to externally communicate with a view of the active harvest sites and closure areas via maps: Very well done.</li> </ol> Improvement matters are as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Note that contractor self-assessment of tree damage is a work in progress.</li> <li>2. Addressing instances where contractors need to improve sustainable forest management practices.</li> </ol>
